223 The 2020 Unisys Security Index for India stands at 223 out of 300, well above the global index of 175, indicating a high level of overall security concern. This is the first time that India is included in the study.

PERSONAL SECURITY 226

FINANCIAL SECURITY 218

NATIONAL SECURITY 223

INTERNET SECURITY 224

82% cited their family's physical health as their key concern in a health crisis like COVID-19.

32% seriously concerned about a data breach while working remotely, reflecting a false sense of security.

INTERNET SECURITY is the second greatest area of concern after Personal Security.

83% Indians are concerned about Identity Theft, making it the topmost security concern, followed by Hacking & Viruses, Bankcard Fraud and Online Shopping.

2020 Unisys Security Index™

CONSUMERS' SECURITY CONCERNS GLOBALLY

India Edition

UNISYS | Securing Your Tomorrow®

unisyssecurityindex.com
#SecurityIndex